

ANDREW MITCHELL ANAESTHESIA 2023

The anaesthetic fee is separate and additional to the surgical and hospital fee. Preferred payment is by credit card over the phone during the preoperative phone consult, Dr Mitchell will phone you prior to surgery.

All patients will be expected to provide payment details prior to surgery.

For large surgeries please call to discuss fees and potential reimbursements via insurer and Medicare.

Please call 0419 824 841 for further clarification.

Costs for wisdom teeth or tooth removal procedures

Uninsured patients pay the whole cost up front $900. Partial refund from Medicare.

Insured with Medibank Private, BUPA, ahm and AHSA $400 gap.

Insured with NIB, hbf, HCF, Qantas and uncommon funds $800 with partial refund via insurer and Medicare.

Costs for braces preparation eg tooth exposure, bonding

Uninsured patients pay the whole cost up front $1100. Partial refund from Medicare.

Insured with Medibank Private, BUPA, ahm and AHSA $500 gap.

Insured with NIB, hbf, HCF, Qantas and uncommon funds $900+ with partial refund via insurer and Medicare.

Cost of large procedures eg mandibular or maxillary surgery approximately up to $2500. Mandibular and maxillary combined procedure up to $3500

Uninsured patients pay the whole cost up front $2000-$3500. Partial refund from Medicare.

Insured with Medibank Private, BUPA, ahm and AHSA. $2000-$3500 with partial refund via insurer and Medicare.

Insured with NIB, hbf, HCF, Qantas and uncommon funds $2000-$3500 with partial refund via insurer and Medicare.

Dental implants

Uninsured patients pay the whole cost up front $1000-$2500. Partial refund from Medicare.

Insured with Medibank Private, BUPA, ahm and AHSA. Gap cost of $500. If the procedure is long a full bill of up to $2500 with partial refund via insurer and Medicare.

Insured with NIB, hbf, HCF, Qantas and uncommon funds ($1000-$2500) with partial refund via insurer and Medicare.